Welcome to Pylewell

A very warm welcome to Pylewell - our one of a kind country house venue.

From bedrooms to bars, ceremony spaces to party places, we invite you to make our home yours for a few days.

We like to do things a little differently around here and toss the traditional wedding rulebook out the window. Quite simply, it's your day and your way!

Set packages don't really float the boat for us and all our weddings and events are wonderfully unique, fabulous, and personal.

We hope our brochure will give you a little insight into what we are all about but we can't wait to meet you in person and start brainstorming, Pinterest perusing and help plan the best party of your life!
